“ i have been researching steven timothy judy as my possible birth father. i saw that mary carr and her husband robert carr were his foster parents. i am very sorry to see she has passed, my prayers go out to all family and friends. i am wondering if robert carr is still alive and of any children. i hope that man was not my birth father but i need to know and i do not know where to turn to try and find out. my mother chooses to not want to answer my questions. if anyone can help me in my search? sorry to ask this way and over mrs. marys passing. As i stated my prayers go out to everone. she had to have been a strong women to have taken on such a thing. if anyone could get back with me if they can help me, i would so much appreciate it. just trying to find out where i came from. thank you and you have my deepest sympathies!
