“ When I was 5or6 I would go to the wigwam to see my uncle Larry play basketball.

That's when I met Mary his girlfriend and I was in awe of her being an indianette. I started dance classes and knew I was going to be a majorette like her which I did at highland

She always looked so pretty and in the past few years I would see her at Keystone and she was still a pretty lady. May she rest in peace

“ One of my favorite memories was her frequently asked for, Butterscotch Pie. A 10” deep dish, perfectly baked meringue on top, delicious dessert that was worth every calorie!

I have many memories of her sharing time with me and our long conversations. Rest in Peace.
