“ My mother. It's close to Christmas and my mind is flooded with memories of my dear mother. We baked together, wrapped gifts, decorated the tree, hung the stockings, offered gifts to the less fortunate. Why did my mother love Christmas? It was her opportunity to give even more than she did throughout the year. My mom was so supportive of me through out all my life. She would stop everything she was doing just to listen to my latest piano piece I created, or a new song that I was practicing for a program or contest. She didn't know a thing about music, but I knew she was so proud of whatever I was doing. She would say, "Hey, Bill play that latest song you're working on for Jean or Mickey Her best friends whenever they came to visit the house." Mom was always being creative with painting, wood working, sewing, cooking, gardening, and anything else she could think of. She shared all these talents with whoever wanted to be a part of what she was doing or sometimes even if you didn't want to help. She would either call you buddy boy or little missy and tell you to get busy because it's for the kids or whatever her current passion. I have so many traits of my mom it's scary... I know I will see her again someday, but for now she's hanging out with the angels and living in her heavenly mansion. I couldn't be more jealous.... Missing you greatly this holiday season.... Love your son, Bill

“Words can't describe the void and sadness we feel. Mary was such a loving person and a great friend! Mary was a true prayer warrior and spent much time on her knees at the alter on behalf of others. We would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Bill and all the family members. We are praying for God's comfort to be with all of you!

“Mary was very special to our family. We loved her dearly. We last saw her in June at the church auction and she had a big hug for us all. That was Mary, always had a hug for you and found a way to make you smile. We love her and we will miss you very much. I bet she is singing out loud in heaven!”
