“ Nancy and I are sad to learn of Annie's death. We know her struggles were great at times, but now only believe she has found peace.

Recalling fond memories, I can hear Catherine calling her "Mary Ann!!" when she was trying to make a point or demand a Mom's attention. And the "Annie" I choose to remember had a remarkable sense of humor, infectious laugh and genuine love for others. Her story about Jake and the "lines" on the TV was a classic I heard her yarn years ago.

To Jake and her family, not one of us can understand how you are feeling now, but please know there is family that deeply cares and loves you.
