“Mary was a very special lady. When we could, my husband Tom and I would visit her during the holidays along with her step-daughter Julie Nankervis and her daughter Julie. Mary was a great hostess and set a delicious table with many treats. One of my favorites was her corn casarole. It was fantastic. She shared her receipe with me and every time I make it I think of her. It never quite tastes the same, but hers was made with a special love you can' t find in a bottle! I'm so glad we got to visit with her before she passed. Move over John, she's coming. Respectfully, Liz Nankervis.
