“ Aunt Mary was kind to me as a boy, and as a man; always complimentary when it came to my efforts to offer music ministry (from the earliest days as a young man, as well as in a non-professional status), and so kind to Mary Anne and the children. I will remember her with true warmth. I am sorry that job requirements/obligations have me on travel all week and over the weekend, and thus totally unable to be with the family for the memorial time. Mary Anne and I extend our thoughts and prayers and love to you all. (Tommy)
