“ I have known Mary for decades and she has always been there whenever I needed her. Although we drifted apart from time to time me and the kids could pop in and she would always be happy to see us. Mary was a sweetheart and she will be missed.

“ I remember sitting in her living room and talking because I felt like she was the only one who actually cared what I was going through. She gave me advice I still carry with me. She looked out for the underdog and there aren't many like her. I will forever miss her and cherish the times I had with her while I did.
