“ Please except my sincere sympathy with the passing of June. I first met her when Clarence was a patient at Community and every time he was admitted, I was sorry but pleased to see June's sweet smile. Although I haven't seen her in quite some time, I still remember what a dear and loving lady she was. I know how much everyone will miss her. Her and Clarence are part of the good memories that I have kept in my heart and mind from my nursing career. There is another Angel in Heaven.
