“ A message for Mike, a long time friend. This is Mike Husek. I'm living in Cicero, IN. Since I don't get the Anderson Herald, I don't get news of old friends. Ron Skillman sent me this obit. I am so sorry for your loss after 30 years of marriage. Mary Lou looks familiar, but I don't remember ever meeting her. However, I do remember Diane. I would love to get together sometime & reminisce about the good old days. Forgive me if this post seems inappropriate, but I've thought about you often & wondered where you ended up. If you feel like talking, my cell# is 765-425-7007. Again, my wife Kim & I send our condolences for your loss. Take care, Mike.

“ I have known Mary for a few years now as a new neighbor and friend, which had become stronger as time went on. Mary was a true woman of faith. I immediately knew she adored her family and husband, Mike, always sharing photos and stories. Her creative gift of crafting was exemplified throughout her beautiful home. She loved her flowers and took pride in her physical appearance. She always wore kindness and compassion on her sleeve. I loved to hear her laugh. She will be missed as a dear friend, but, she is in the Hands of Jesus now - her best Friend and in her eternal home. Rest and Rejoice, Mary.
