“ Mary was so smart, she knew the martin family tree and told me so much. I loved her and my Uncle. Time goes by. I love the family and remember them from the late 40s. I am so sorry in her passing and hope her family accepts this and does well. The Martins and Rains goes back a long time in Kentucky. I will never forget her.

*Love Max Jerry Head, son of Phillip N.Head and Clara

“ When I was in high school my mom moved out of the Madison Heights school district. Mammaw and Pappaw allowed me to come stay with them through the week so that I could graduate with my friends. Pappaw got up every morning and made breakfast and Mammaw made me do homework and play games and watch wheel of fortune and jeopardy.

“ Mia, Saw your mother's obituary, so sorry for your loss. It seems the longer we have our loved ones, the harder it is to let them go. I pray God will aid you through this time and bring you the comfort of knowing your mother is at peace. God bless.

Your Girl Scout friend,

Marie Hagan

“ She one one of a kind. She always have a smile on her face she like to laugh. She love sitting outside on the porch with Sewell . She like flowers planting things. She was always doing something and Sewell was to U both are going to be missed very much. When I think of u guys I feel like my heart is broken now. You both remind me of my grandpa and grandma. I love you so much.

“ One memory of Mary and Sewell for me is that when Doug and I first moved back from Ga.every weekend they would call asking us to meet them at Shoney's for breakfast, they loved going out to eat and it was very special for us as well just being able to be with them. these last few years Mary and I had become very close....we had her over lots for dinner.....she would always say (Shelia's a good cook)....bless her sweet heart, she will be missed so very much!!!

“ Max and I share in your grief of losing your Mother; My Dear Aunt Mary. I love Aunt Mary and Uncle Sewell and we have missed seeing them due to living in different states, but the memories of our lovely visits will remain forever. May Our Awesome Lord Jesus Christ comfort each heart during this time of sorrow.
