“ I am sorry for your loss. I was unable to get out of school obligations and unfortunately couldn't make it. I did not know her very well. I do remember how nice she was, and how much she really loved it when Jake would come visit her. She was very caring, loving, and full of life. I know she is with her husband, Paul, now and looking down and smiling. Her impression will be felt forever. Her children have grown into great people. She has a son who is now the mayor after spending many years protecting Anderson on the police force. One of her other sons, Skip, puts his life on the line every time he is at work. His contribution as a firefighter and also what he has done for the community, by giving back and helping people, is extraordinary and he is truly a hero. An amazing woman has left, but her legacy will be felt forever.

“ Roger, Kris and family, It is with much sadness that I write to you in regard to the loss of your mother. May you find peace in Jesus Christ as you begin to recall those special times which were shared with your mother by all. May you find strength in Jesus Christ all the days that God gives you. I pray that you would be encouraged knowing that Paul made it so clear when he wrote, that being "absent from the body is present with the Lord" May God keep you and bless you Joel Hobbs
