Mary was a mainstay at The Help Center downtown. She volunteered often and blessed everyone with her beautiful smile and kindness. Everyone loved her. She was a good listener and many of the homeless people would sit and talk to her for hours. Mary loved Jesus and she loved to worship Him. When she attended Jeremiah's Promise Church, her tears would flow constantly during worship and the Word. Mary was a true worshipper in spirit and in truth. What a tender, giving heart God placed in her.
