

Mary A. Reikosky

January 4, 1913 - October 26, 2004

Pendleton - Mary A. Hollins Reikosky, 91, Pendleton, died October 26, 2004 at Rawlins House, Pendleton. She was born January 4, 1913 in Trenton, New Jersey, and had been a resident of Rawlin's House in Pendleton, Indiana for the past ten years. She was a homemaker. She was a 1930 graduate of Cathedral High School. She was a member of Church of St. Ann in Lawrenceville, New Jersey. She was a perpetual member of St. Ann's Altar Rosary Society and of the Cathedral High School Alumni Association. She is survived by her daughter, Judith A. & husband Nelson Coughlan of Avon, Indiana; two grandchildren, Jayne C. & husband Rob Stone and Janice M. & husband Robert Sanders both of Indianapolis, Indiana; four great grandchildren, Rachel M. Stone, Lauren E. Stone, Emma K. Sanders and Benjamin A. Sanders all of Indianapolis, Indiana and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded by her husband whom she married in Trenton, New Jersey on August 22, 1936, Robert A. Reikosky; parents, Frank M. Sr. & Amelia VanKirk Hollins and a daughter, Janice Mari Reikosky. Services will be Monday, November 1, 2004 at 10:30 AM, at St. Ann's Catholic Church, with Rev. R. Vincent Gartland officiating. Burial will be in Ewing Cemetery, Ewing, New Jersey. Visitation will be from 3-5:00 PM on Sunday, October 31, 2004 at Poulson & Van Hise Funeral Home. Memorial contributions may be made to Church of St. Ann, Faith Development Center, 1253 Lawrence Road, Lawrenceville, New Jersey 08648. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com