“ Dear Connie & Family, I was so sorry to hear of your father's passing. He was a fine person even though he referred to me as "stinky" when he was in the 600 skilled unit. I always enjoyed sharing quips with him. He was really alert.

“ I will always remember "Uncle" Max as a dear and kind man. He was always there to buffer my Dad's silliness. I am very sorry to learn about his passing. Unfortunately I am unable to travel, but I want you to know that you all are in my prayers and thoughts. He was such a loving person and I am sure he will be missed by many. He will be with me always in memories and in my heart as my UNCLE MAX. Love to you all, Cheryl
