

Maxine R. Case

November 8, 1926 - January 22, 2005

Anderson - Maxine R. Roush Case, 78, Anderson, died January 22, 2005 at Middletown Nursing & Rehabilitation Center after an extended illness. She was born November 8, 1926 in Atlanta, Indiana, and lived in this area all of her life. She retired in 1982 from Guide Lamp Division of General Motors after 30 years of service. Maxine was a skilled artist receiving many awards for her paintings. She was chosen to do a portrait of Carl Dobos, Guide Lamp manager, when he retired. She was a Red Cross Volunteer serving at Marion County VA and New Castle State Hospitals. She was a former member of Alpha Chapter American Business Women. She is survived by her Husband whom she married in 1945: Harold Case. Three Sons: Donald & wife Sandra Case of Pendleton. Stephen & wife Diane Case of Chesterfield. Thomas & wife Carol Case of Markleville. Brother: Fred Jr. & wife Ann Roush of Anderson. Grandchildren: Kim & husband Jeff Lechatt, Michael & wife Jeanette Case, Tina & husband Eric Shaw, Tommy & wife Amanda Case, Chris & wife Della Case and Tracy Edwards. Thirteen Great Grandchildren and several Nieces. She was preceded by her Parents: Fred & Geraldine Roush. Daughter: Peggy Jo. Two Sisters: Betty Mathews and Joan Whitlow. Cremation will take place. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Mom you will always be in our hearts and thoughts. I love you Your Daughter-inlaw Carol carol case - June 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM

TC

“ Mom, it's almost been 1 month now, and Dad has already left us, to continue taking care of you. I hope you two are enjoying your new home, and I want you two to know, I'm thinking of you every day. And I hope 1 day to play golf with you two again. I Love You!!

Tom Case - June 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM