Maxine was my school cook for all of my 8 years at Fall Creek Heights Elementary (1959 - 1967), and she always was such a sweet person (along with being a great cook, of course). It turns out that I didn't have to give up her cooking, because she would end up being a cook at one of my favorite Anderson eateries (Dorothy Blevins Tea Cart). One of my favorite things she made there was potato soup -- she put dumplings into it that added that very special touch. I actually never cared for potato soup until sometime in early adulthood. Of course, by the time I started going to Dorothy Blevins Tea Cart, I loved it -- and now regret that I wouldn't touch the stuff during my 8 years of elementary school. I didn't know what I was missing. There's so much more that I can say about Maxine -- all wonderful!!!
