“ My dad, Phil Hagan, was good friends with Dean & I was around him a lot when I was young. I'll never forget when he sold me this dog of his that I loved for a nickel. He was a very nice man. He will be missed.

“ When the Lord takes your loved ones home he leaves you with precious memories. Your in my thoughts and prayers. I would have came for the viewing or funeral but it's really hard because I just lost my father 2 months ago and my husband last week. Both were there at Loose which is really hard. I do have some funny memories of Dean at a Holloween party years ago. He sure was a funny man.

“ I miss grandpa very much, but I know I will see him agian in a better place. That gives me peace. I loved it when he told me I was this close to being as good looking as him. He had his sense of humor to the very end. Love to all of my family.

“ I was so sad to hear about the loss of Uncle Dean. Like many others, I will always remember him for saying that famous sentence "You're just about this shy from being as good looking as me!" He used to always say that first thing anytime I'd see him! I will also never forget him when he used to come in to Grandma Brown's house Eileen and say, "Where's them Night girls at?" And Kathy and I would always come out laughing and we'd say "Our last name is Day, Uncle Dean, not Night!" He'd just laugh!! I will miss that greatly! I will also miss talking to him about working out at Grissom Air Reserve Base. We could talk for hours maybe not hours, but for a long time about the military. Someday, when we meet again, I'll look forward to hearing those famous lines once again!! I'm sorry for your loss and if you guys need anything, we're here for you. Love you all! Love, Leslie Day Pam Day's daughter
