“ Mike was a faithful customer of Riegel's Pipe & Tobacco for many years. He always supported our stores and would attend any events we had. Mike would anticipate needs and just take care of it. He thought we needed a cigar lounge sign. He found someone to custom make a sign and brought it in with hardware to hang it. He was so predictable with his attendance. When he did not show up, I would call him. Three days in a row last week, I was worried. Will always miss you my friend. Wishing you eternal peace.

“ For the better part of 25 years, Mike, who we know affectionately as Moose, has come to our home in Lebanon, Ohio on or around New Years Eve. We watched a lot of college bowl games, smoked a few fine cigars, and frequented the Golden Lamb in Lebanon and some other Irish pubs. We will not be staying home next New Years Eve as it will just not be the same. Buy we shall always cherish the memories of the time we had with Mike and we miss him already. Rest in Peace my friend. “ I met Mike at Riegel’s Pipe & Tobacco in Fort Wayne in around 2009, and he became a dear friend. Mike visited me in the hospital after my cancer surgery in 2010 and after my stroke in 2016. He was always thoughtful and generous, and his many friends at Riegel’s will miss him and remember him fondly.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Moose’s passing. I met Moose at Purdue back in the 70’s. I have great memories of football games, the parties afterwards and, honestly, very little memory of studying. I know we did though 😊
He came to visit us in Maine one time and I shall never forget the laughs we had during that visit.
Fond fond memories.....
