“ My Brother Mike!...I'm supposed to share memories of you & I, all I can say is, WE were what Mom Betty used to call us! Two halves of a whole! We did some WILD & KRAZEE Stuff as Teenagers, but we were basically good dudes! Having Fun & Chicks were our thing & WE packed a lot of FUN In those years! Our other friends couldn't believe some of our Antics, I guess that's why they Loving called us the "Terror Twins" We will Someday be Reunited!...LOVE YA DUDE!

“ Noone could smile and laugh and bring sunshine into your life like our Mike. His broadest smiles where those on his face when he bursting with pride talked of his son Dakota. May God comfort your hearts at this time.

“ I've never seen a father show such devotion to his son as Mike showed toward Koda. He packed a lifetime of activities into his son's first 10 years. Most kids haven't played as much football or been to as many car races as Koda has. Koda may not have had his dad for long, but he got every bit of joy that Mike could give in his condition. In spite of his pain, Mike seemed to find joy in living one day at a time. May that joy live on in his son Dakota and his wife Danielle. Our prayers are with you.

“ My dear friend, I am sorry to see you go. I know you are in a better place where you will feel no more pain. I will miss seeing you every weekend at Anderson Speedway on the back stretch. You and your family always stopped to talk me while I was working. Danielle and Dakota, may you find peace in knowing that he is in a better place and will be waiting for you until the end of time. You are both in my thoughts and prayers.
