“ My deepest sympathy goes out to everyone in the family. Mildred or as we called her when we were little Grandma Troxell was a very sweet and caring lady. A true woman of christ. She will be greatly missed.

“ Mildred exemplified the Biblical exhortation that "whatever your hands find to do, do it with all your might as unto God and not unto man" It was a privilege to serve at Operation Love along side Mildred. Her strong work ethic, motivated by her desire to serve God and her fellow man was and example to us all. Her love for her family was paramount in her life. She was the only person I ever met who could chronically worry and constantly pray for so many at the same time. It was her passion for her family that endeared her to so many of us. She was a shining example of servitude and commitment. I remember her hesitance to miss any time from work even when going for dialysis. She was a wonderful example to all, a valued associate in ministry and a blessing to all who had the privilege of knowing her. I was proud to have considered her a friend. My sincerest sympathy to all of her family and friends whom I know along with myself, feel a deep sense of sorrow and loss.
Sincerely Gary Cook, Program Director, Operation Love, 1997-2002
