“ I spent three wonderful years playing baseball for "Mr. Keith" when he managed Pepsi-Cola in the Madison Avenue Little League in the early 1960's. He was always encouraging, pitched batting practice tirelessly, and created an environment where my teammates and I could experience much joy and success. The memories of that period are still vivid for me, and throughout my 30-year coaching career, I have thought often of Mr. Keith's example. He gave me the confidence to play baseball beyond my neighborhood and to risk failure in an effort to improve and achieve success. As a result, I grew as a player and as a person. Volunteers like Mr. Keith are certainly underpaid, and I truly hope I conveyed my appreciation frequently and directly enough to him when I was young and when I saw him a few times thereafter. Thank you, Mr. Keith, and my sincere condolences to his family. -- Rob Shoemaker

“ Dear Kathy and Family - I was very sorry to hear about your Dad's passing... You shared so many stories about your Dad that I felt like I knew him personally! In a way I did - men of that generation share so many of the same wonderful qualities... they are a different and special breed! You'll be in my prayers - have a safe trip back to Buffalo.
