“ Summer of 92 was one of the best summers of my life! Monica and I camped all summer and worked at Edgewood Country Club. We drank champagne out of plastic cups. We took off and explored Lake Michigan and all of the glory of a road trip. We believed that Wayne's world was our documentary as we, "lived with our parents and had an assortment of hair nets and name tags" . We laughed so hard all of the time that summer. I mean really hard so that that gut laugh has never left my heart ever! Although I have not seen her in 30 years. I have and never will forget Summer of 92. May she Party on in Heaven. Love Julie
