“ I will always feel blessed that I got to know my Aunt Myrtle these last couple of years. She was such a loving person with a beautiful smile and heart. I loved our long talks and e-mails. She will always hold a special place in my heart. Please remember you have cousins in Calif. that would feel blessed to get to know her children. She was a Wonderful Woman. God Bless all of you.

“ I am so sorry to learn of the loss of Myrtle's life . I read on SAMTALK that Jack's wife had suddenly died and even though I have never met either Jack or Myrtle, I felt compelled by a strong sense of compassion and understanding , as we are in the same age brackets and I have also survived my husband's death.. The commonality is also reflected in our strong love of magic....my prayers are for JACK and all of his family...it is so difficult to lose someone who is so precious and so loved.... God Bless all.... Pat Ryan S.A.M. 47 Rochester, N.Y.
