“ I don't have an explanation for why I was thinking about Nerma this evening. I worked with her at Americana in the late 70s-early 80s where I was a nursing assistant in Station 2 at that time. Such a sweet lady but the busiest nurse I ever knew. I went on a few years later and put myself through nursing school. I became and LPN in December 1984. This month I celebrate 40 years as a nurse. I think Nerma would be proud of me.
