“ I never met Nigel in person, but he was so helpful in regards to my pension account on the phone and by e-mail. When he talked on the phone, I could almost see him smiling...He truly let his light shine for Jesus~Matthew 5:16.

“ I moved to Indiana in 1994 and became involved in the local rugby community; it didn't take long to meet Nigel! I can't believe it has been 15 years, but in that time I have always respected his devotion to the game and his concern for his players. He will be missed by his family as much as he will be missed by his rugby family. Godspeed. Harry Laws

“ I first met Nigel in August 1970 at Winchester Railway Station, young lads on their first day in the Army. I had the great honour to have then served with him and Kathy in Hong Kong, Berlin and England. A great man, friend, husband and father who adored Kathy. We will miss Nigel so much and send our deepest sympathy?s to Kathy and family. The hundreds of people within in the UK who had the pleasure and privilege to have known Nigel are thinking of you and your loss.

“ To Kathryn and Your Family, While there is nothing we can do or say that could possibly make this difficult time any less painful, we can rest in knowing that our Heavenly Father will carry you through. Our hearts are broken for you and we have been praying for you constantly. You are one of the most loving and devoted teachers we have ever known and we love you deeply.

“ To the Parker family, Nigel and I's path have crossed many times. Although we were not good friends he always remembered my name. My honest opinion is he probably read my name tag when I had forgotten I was wearing one. I will remember him as a funny comrad and a financial genius. Thanks for sharing him with us. His faith and humor was refreshing.

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. Although we haven't met, all of us have experienced the loss of a loved one. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are never alone. Turn to the Holy Scriptures for guidance and to help soothe your heart. Psalms 34;18 assures us that God is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. Please accept my deepest sympathies.

“ My family and I are constantly praying for you, Libby, and Jake. Our deepest sympathy goes out to each of you. There will undoubtedly be many adjustments made in your life, just remember the reasons why Nigel fell in love with you. You are an amazing woman and will be a stronger woman through it all. May God bless you! Love, Betty, Brad, and Kelsie

“ To the Family of Nigel Parker: I must say today that I have been taken back by this news. It was only two weeks ago that Nigel and I spoke with each other. Of course our primary interaction with each other was in regard to being a participant in the Pension Program of the Church of God. Nigel was very encouraging with his words of insight, and very informed with regard to his responsibilities. We will be praying for all the family and friends. Blessings and Peace. Gordon F. Ramey, Pastor St. Andrew Church of God Camden, SC

“ Dear Parker Family, I am one of the many that have been honored to have made Nigel's acquaintance. I haven't seen him for a few years now, but he was a great man and good friend to many. I want to thank you for sharing him with so many of us throughout the churches and for giving us a chance to have him as a part of our lives. I pray that God's comfort and strength will be given to you at this time in a very strong and evident way. Bless You!
