“ I was Nila's Hairdresser for many years. She had all these clipping out of the newspaper in her purse. You could ask her a question, and she would check her clippings and usually find something. She was way ahead of her time. I always enjoyed seeing her. She really doted on her grandson. she will be missed. Irene Shoemaker

Hi Irene,
Nila's granddaughter here. She so enjoyed getting her hair done. Thank-you for taking care of her and making sure she always looked beautiful.
Her and those darn newspaper clippings...Ha! She's done that my whole life!
Thank-you for posting. All the best,
Tavin
