“ Roberta was a very faithful servant for the Lord. Even though she was unable to attend church in later years due to her health condition, she continued to be faithful in her financial giving and prayers for the people of the church. I believe by the testimony of her life, she is in the presence of God. We will meet again someday. Prayers for her family during this time.

“ Ms. Roberta was a “spiritual giant” in my life. I’ll always remember her smiling face when I would walk into the sanctuary. I KNOW she prayed for me and I’ll always remember the prayer warrior she was for so many people. The world is better for her having been in it. It brings me joy to think of her receiving her Heavenly reward, but sadness that it will be so long before we see her again. Prayers for the family in the coming days.

“ Sunday, February 23, mom got to attend a wonderful church service at the nursing home as her last Sunday, and sang along with some beautiful hymn songs from the past!!!!
