“ Nina will be sadly missed at The Toast. I really enjoyed setting and chatting with her and Jake. I know it may be hard for Jake, but I hope he will come see us when he is able. Our sincere sympathy is with Jake and the family. You could really tell Jake and Nina loved each other. I know Jake will miss her greatly.

“ My sincere sympathies for the loss of such a dear loved one. Although we did not personally know her, in the short time we have been in Hebron, we have heard many wonderful things about Nina from the Howenstines. May God comfort your hearts & increase your hope in the perfect future you will all share together one day.
