“ Nola and her husband Bill were like parents to me. They were kind, thoughtful, and caring individuals. They always cared about what they did and never put themselves above anyone else. They always did work as if they were doing it for themselves and would not do a job except to their own satisfaction. The world needs more people like Bill and Nola eventhough Bill passed away in 96 they will both be sadly missed. Thank you for your guidance, caring, and friendship. You will be sadly missed. A former employee and friend.
