“ To Linda - my second daughter. So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She is at peace now; no more pain and suffering and in the hands of God. She was a very sweet person and I loved her dearly. God bless you and your family and may he hold you in the His hand and comfort you. I will always love you, Linda.

“ Angie & family and Bob & family: Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. Just know that your mother is now at peace and with your dad. I remember in middle school staying all night with you Angie at the house on Brown Street. Your mom was a wonderful lady. It was interesting years later to become acquainted with Bob through Pizza King and find out that he was your older brother. It definitely is a small world. Hope you all cherish your memories you had with her as it will help get you through this very difficult time.
