

Norma Jean Newcomer

September 14, 1935 - July 24, 2025

Norma Jean Newcomer, 89, of Anderson, Indiana, passed away peacefully at 2:26 PM on July 24, 2025, after a brief illness. She was surrounded by her loving family, including her husband, Jim; her children, Lori and Mark; her sister Phyllis; stepdaughter, Vickie; daughter-in-law, Diane; granddaughter, Aubrey; and friends Lynn and Patricia.

Born in Anderson, Indiana, Norma was a lifelong resident of the community she cherished. She was the daughter of Kathryn (Reichert) and Orville Stohler.

A proud graduate of Anderson High School (Class of 1953), Norma went on to earn both her B.S. (1957) and M.A. degrees from Ball State University. She dedicated 28 years to teaching in Anderson Community Schools, where she impacted countless lives at Westvale, Brentwood, and North Anderson Elementary Schools.

Norma was a devoted and lifelong member of Central Christian Church in Anderson. She sang in the church choir for over 70 years and served faithfully as a deacon, elder, and organizer of funeral dinners for many years. She also played in the bell choir.

On May 28, 1994, she married the love of her life, James (Jim) Benjamin Newcomer. Together, they shared a love for travel and adventure, having visited all 50 U.S. states and numerous countries. A highlight of her later years was a cherished 8-day Caribbean cruise in February 2025 with Jim, her children, and daughter-in-law.

More than anything, Norma treasured her family and was deeply present in their lives. She rarely missed an important event, no matter the distance.

“ We enjoyed Norma at the gym. She was so happy and encouraged people! Her gorgeous hair and dress even for the gym. Many people at the gym enjoyed her. Also, my husband knew Norma from the Indiana Retired Teachers Association. I also probably taught with her in 1 elementary school.
