“ To the LaGarde family, although I didn't know your Mother personally, I would like to send my sincere condolences on her passing. I didn't see the obit. for Lowell and would like to send along my condolences for him also. Mr. LaGarde was my grade school principal at Forrest Hills during my six years of attendance there. He was a wonderful man and truly cared for his students.

“ My sincere sympathy to Olive's family at this sad time. I worked with Olive at Delco-Remy and knew her to be one of the sweetest people in my many years there. She was a true Lady. Her rhubarb pies she would deliver to me were the best! You are in my life memories Olive. Rest in peace.

“ We are very saddened of the passing of Olive. She was always friendly and very nice to both of us. She was such a good sister-in-law and friend to our aunt Hester Barrett. Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family. Jim & Jan Holsapple, wintering in Florida
