I remember as a child watching my cousin Carolyn DeShon start dating a young man but the name of Orville Slack. I thought they were then neatest couple and even better that they allowed me to tag along with them when they went places. The relationship with my cousins continued through the years and we saw each other mainly every summer when my family vacationed in Indiana. I have such fond memories of those times. I look forward to the day when we will be reunited in heaven with all of our loved ones who have gone before. Rest in peace Orville, I know you're rejoicing with Carolyn! I also am certain that you have experienced the most meaningful thing ever, that of meeting your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ face to face. Hallelujah what a day that will be!
