“ Chris, I was shocked to hear the news of Otis. I always enjoyed our time together while working on a new home he was building. I will always cherish the memories and wonderful conversations we always had. He was always asking questions about God and life as he and I both reflected on Dad's life. Otis was always great with a good story or joke. I will truly miss him and know that our hearts and prayers are with you Chris, Allison, and Wesley at this tearful time. God Bless you.
