“ I met Pat over 20 years ago through her youngest son Bob and wife (Teresa). I experienced Pat as a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great great grandmother. The many years I have known Pat, she was soft spoken and greatly respected. I never heard her raise her voice.

I will miss her snickerdoodle cookies she made for Bob's birthdays and her meat loaf with special sauce at holiday family dinners. Most of all, I will miss Pat's sweet spirit. It is difficult to let go but we know Pat said, "she was ready to go to heaven." Pat, rest in the loving arms of Jesus because you greatly deserve it by the grace of God. No more pain or suffering.

Danner family, sorry I am not there with you to celebrate Pat's life due to unforeseen situation, I pray God's strength and comfort upon you in the days, weeks, months, and years to come.
