“ I choose to give a donation in her name to the outreach program at Trinity because it was so very important to her. I was privileged to be available to her when she was seeking to find her spiritual center, in finding it her special love was helping the homeless or people who needed food or help. She fit right into Trinity’s program and Helped to make and keep it strong.
We had already exchanged our flowers as we shared our gardens beauty. We often said that we would rather have our flowers while we were alive than to be surrounded by them when we were dead.
