“ Dear Paul, Loretta and girls, We were saddened to hear of the death of Paul's father. We know he was such an important part of your lives for so many years and no one will ever be able to replace his kindness, grace and wisdom. We are particularly intuned to your loss given the passing of our own Dad Krider just four months ago. We have offered you and your family up in our prayers at church and hope that your faith will help you through this trying time. ". . . My peace I give to you. . ." Sincerest condolences, Joe, Nancy, Katy and Abby
