“ Paul was my Father In Law. But, he was more like a second father. Early on our marriage when I was either unemployed or underemployed n I spent hours upon hours with him working on cars or in his shop. I didn't at the time, but later came to cherish that time we spent together talking about life. He loved me like I truly was his own son.

“ Paul was my Uncle. He was in love with his family. When ever I would come to Anderson I would stay at Lydia and Pauls house. It was a house full of fun and sunshine. I dont think Uncle Paul met too many people he didn't like. Webwould play cards for hours and I never knew if I won or lost. There always seemed to be the mystry rule that would show up. Someday I will really learn to play the right way. What a fun guy. I will always remember Uncle Paul. Just remember Paul I'm comming to finally beat you at cards. What a family that is truley blessed by the love of our savior Jesus Christ.

“ This man was my uncle, one of several. He had a huge influence on my life. Without him I would not have had the successful career I had. His smile and giggly laugh were precious. He loved to play cards, "Hand & Foot" and my wife did too. She died a couple weeks ago, it is so comforting knowing they are together in Heaven and playing cards together. Can't wait to say "Deal me in."
