“ I work at PayLess and met Paul as a customer. He was such a sweet man and it tore me up to hear of his passing. He knew I had two sons and always asked how our kids were doing and how thier dad was I had told him he had artheritis. Even if my line was too long for him he would always stop and tell me hi and ask if everyone was ok and to tell me to hurry up. Paul was more than a customer to me, he was my friend and I will miss him greatly, as I'm sure we all will.

“ I can recall a childhood memory when our families were traveling in an auto, probably going to Aurora. Doesn't seem like so many years ago, even though it was a good many. I hope caring thoughts bring you strength in this time of sadness. Sincerely, Frances Swango Armstrong
