“ Paula always made people feel special and cared for. When Matt was in poor health, she wanted me to keep her updated on how he was doing and she asked her church to keep him in prayer. Her friendship has been a blessing to our family for years and we look forward to seeing her again one day in heaven.

“ I didn't get a chance to know Paula for long, but the brief time I did know her it became obvious why her daughter Amanda loved her so much. She treated me with intense sweetness. Although our friendship was short-lived I know I will miss her. My love is with Amanda, Steve and Luci as well as all of Paula's family.
