“ Hello to all of the Hofer family.

It's with great sadness to hear the passing of my cousin Peggy on the heels of loosing her husband Tom last year.

For many years Peggy always sent me Christmas cards which I looked forward to during the holidays. It was a simple card as Peggy was, wishing all good cheer, and most of all that she remembered to always send one to me.

In our daily lives we often forget how fast time passes and keeping in touch with those close to us. I'm one of those...

My father Tom Hardwick many years ago handed me a card titled "The Clock of Life" and I want to share it with you.

*The clock of life is wound but once
And no man or woman hath the power
To tell just when the hands will stop
At late or early hour.
NOW is the time you own,
Live, Love, Toil with a will;
Place no faith in tomorrow, for
The clock them may be still.*

I hope this has meaning to you as it has for me all these years.

*Sincere condolences,
Steve & Nata Hardwick
Piermont NY*
