“ I just learned of Phil's passing. I knew Phil from our nights clubbing in Indianapolis in the early 80's. He always spoke to me. Later I discovered he had moved to West Hollywood as I had and we were neighbors. He'd always wave at me if he saw me on my balcony or driving my Wrangler. A true and kind soul--hard to find in a city like LA. You will be missed my friend.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Buck and family..... I still find myself reeling from the news of Philips passing! Philip was, in every sense the touch stone among my circle of friends here in California and beyond! If Vera and I had not met Philip on a last minute trip to LA 18 years ago, I would never have had the guts to pull up stakes and move out to CA! I hope you all can take some comfort in knowing just what a remarkable person your son and brother was. Vera and I will continue to remember Philip and his "sayings" and each time we repeat one of them, I know that he will be looking down on us with a cheeky smile, saying to himself...."Oh Please"... and we'll all smile too as we think of and remember Philip Jason Beers and Marcus Laxamana Los Angeles

“ Bruce, Sue, Derrick and family, my heart is so saddened at the death of Phil. Family reunions will not be the same. Phil was always the light of the party and to imagine no more political discussions "arguments". May God bless each of you and give you strength and comfort. With all my love, Beverly

“ Phil, I know you are looking down on us from heaven. I remember when you worked at JC Penny's and my Sister Rebecca Mills and her friend Jane Spidel along with moi they had to bring me along would come out to Penny's store just to see you, a handsome site for sore eyes and the kindest person ever! It made our day!!! It is so hard to know you've left us now, a part of our teen memories and feeling you are suppose to be with us long into our older years to come, but you will live on in the hearts of all who knew you. Peace be still. Oh heart, if one should say to you that the soul perishes like the body, answer that the flower withers, but the seed remains.~

“ Dearest Buck family, I am truly saddened about Philips death - we have been friends over 18 years. I credit my wonderful life in CA to your son - I met him during a vacation to LA with Jason Beers 18 years ago, and Philip was so kind, generous, and welcoming. Eventually Jason moved here and lived with Philip, and I followed! We have always been friends. I know Philips birthday is next Tuesday - we never forgot to send greetings to each other - we decided we were "evil twins"! His passing leaves a hole in our hearts. Our thoughts are with you. Know he was loved and will be missed. Trips to LA won't be the same. We shared so many Christmas', Thanksgivings and holidays together. Philip was a Hollywood staple for me - just like all the other landmarks - he will live on forever. I wont be able to pass San Vicente without smiling at his apartment and remembering all the GREAT times we had there together. Love, Vera

“ Derrick, Allow me to express my deepest condolence to your entire family. Loss of a loved one makes us feel like we are left alone in a still picture while everything else are still going as usual. But time heals your wounded heart and that is what Philp wants... If there is anything that I can do to help you in anyway, please do not hesitate to call me at anytime. We are always here for you and your family at a moment's notice. With sincere thoughts and prayers, “ Earth has no sorrows, that heaven can't heal. To the family of Phil Buck, I was sadden to hear of his passing, but yet joyful in his transition to his heavenly home. I attended Madison Heights and graduated with Phil. He was such a warm and caring person that he was able to bring a smile to faces that had no hope. He will be missed dearly by those that loved him and his fellow classmates. Family hold on to the memories of him and he will never be far away. May our God bless and keep each of you in His care.

“ To the family of Philp. I met Philip and worked with Philip at DBL Realtors and got to really know what a wonderful person he was. There was one time when I met his parents when they came to visit LA and his mother told me her birthday was the same day at mine July 16th. You have raised a wonderful son and great person who will be greatly missed by all.
