“ Dear All, I just wanted to pass on a memory of your Mom for us which we thought was so true. Our daughter, Taya, about 5 yrs old at the time attended a Fredericks gathering and was trying to figure out who everyone there was. Your Mom was busy serving some food, and Taya started a conversation with her and asked her how she was related to the Fredericks. Your Mom replied in her husky voice " I AM THE FREDERICKS". Taya asked me what that meant and I explained how your Mom and Dad had started a LONG lineage of Fredericks\', just like Taya\'s Grandma and Grandpa had started the Frossards. Taya came home and told us the story and I could hear your Mom\'s voice. Thinking of you all; knowing how hard these life\'s experiences are on all of us still here on Earth. Take care, Julie Frossard Smythe

“ To the Fredericks Family of Chesterfield, I am so sorry to just learn about the the loss of "Mom" Fredericks. She was a wonderful lady - always friendly and caring. Although it has been over 25 years ago, I can vividly remember her sewing, mending clothes, and/or cooking while I visited your home. God Bless All the Fredericks Family during this time of sorrow.
