“ I will miss rachel so much she was the first person who trained me when i started at walmart. She always inspired me to still be going strong at 80 working the register. She never took anybody attititude. It was a real pleasure working with her for two years. I will never forget the first week I CSM and she ordered money and I was a little late bringing it,she looked up and said "Your a little late. I will let you slide this time." She will be missed all my prayers go for the family
