“ Dear Sue, Howard, Jackie, and families, I am so very sorry to hear about Mr. de St Jean's passing. Please extend my sympathy to your Mother. Your family always seemed so close, and I always enjoyed the times I was around all of you. It seems like such a long time ago when I used to come to your house and cut hair. Its so hard to believe your children are now grown and have little ones of their own. You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ Grandma, you will never know how sorry we are for your loss. We know that you two had a special bond, and we can't begin to understand how you feel at this time. I know it's hard to see now but time will ease the pain, and your memories will become brighter and brighter with each day. He touched so many lives throughout the years because he was truly a wonderful man. We hold his memories very dear to our hearts. Just thinking of him brings warmth to our hearts and smiles to our faces. We love you both very much.

“ It is with gratitude that I reflect on the good fortune I had to be in the circle of love that Grandpa de St. Jean created. His generosity of spirit, human kindness, and thoughtful conduct brought out the best in each of us. His love lives on in our hearts.
