“ I know that this is late, and I don't know if family will even see it, but I felt that someone might want to know how much we respected Eddie. Eddie, Scott, and their mother attended Otterbein United Methodist Church when I married my husband and began attending there. My husband, Steve, and I were in a young adult Sunday School class, of which Eddie was also part. We would also have Bible Studies in each other's homes, and Eddie would come to them. He was always so faithful and serious about studying, and we worked together to help him find a Bible version most useful to him. He also became a good friend. Steve and I helped with the youth group, too, and that is when I got to meet Eddie's brother Scott. There were times when we would take Scott home after youth events. After we moved away, we lost contact with Eddie. However, one day Steve was visiting a friend in a long-term care facility when he saw Eddie at the same facility. They were so excited to see each other and renewed their friendship immediately. Steve has a therapy dog that visits veterans and that also works with children in the court system, so many times Steve would take his dog with him. Steve would visit Eddie two to four times a month, and Eddie always looked forward to his visits. One day, Eddie was no longer at the facility, and some time later Steve was told that Eddie had passed away. We are both sorry that we did not have the opportunity to give Eddie's family our condolences, but we want them to know that Eddie was, indeed, a very special person in our lives. Debby (and Steve) Jourdan
