January 16, 1948 - April 11, 2026

Ramona Stover, 78, of Anderson, Indiana, passed away on April 11, 2026.

She was born on January 16, 1948, in Indianapolis, Indiana, to Glen Milligan and Helen (Watkins) Hawkins.

Ramona attended George Washington High School and went on to live a life rooted in care for others. She was a talented seamstress and devoted much of her time as a stay-at-home mom and homemaker, creating a warm and welcoming home for her family.

In 1981, she married the love of her life, Jesse Stover. Together, they built a life filled with simple joys and shared memories. Ramona found happiness in the outdoors and in the comforts of home-she loved fishing, cooking, gardening, canning, and collecting cherished items over the years.

She will be remembered for her sweet and generous spirit, her thoughtful and caring nature, and her unmistakable personality. Ramona had a witty sense of humor, often speaking her mind without hesitation, and her bubbly presence could light up any room. Above all, she was deeply loving, and her kindness left a lasting impression on everyone who knew her. Ramona is survived by her beloved husband, Jesse Stover Jr.; son, Steve A. Mulligan; daughter, Paris R. Vaughn; daughter, Misty L. Boyer; 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in passing by father, Glen Mulligan; mother, Helen Hawkins; and brother, Leonard Mulligan.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, April 18th, 2026, from 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM at Loose

Funeral Homes & Crematory, 200 West 53rd Street, Anderson, Indiana, 46013. The service will begin at 1:00 PM with Pastor Sherry Cochran officiating.

Ramona's legacy is one of warmth, laughter, and unconditional love. She will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
