“ Aunt Mary, Anita and Neil, You all were very generous to our family through the years. I have good memories of being at your home for dinner and my dad thoroughly enjoying your company. Uncle Max never lost his strength and ruggedness to me. He had many characteristics like my dad and for that I think I felt very comfortable around him. I'm so sorry for your loss and I pray that your grief will only bring you closer to God's heart. What a day it will be when we're all reunited. God be near you and bless and comfort you through this time. Love, Chris and Moniqué Conner

“ Aunt Mary, Anita, and Neil, My deepest sympathy in the loss of Uncle Max. His devotion to his family cannot be matched and was an example for others. 4th of July was not the same this year due to his illness and will not ever be the same again with his absence. Hopefully you will continue the tradition and we will see you every 4th. Love your neice and cousin Teresa

“Mary, Neil, and Anita: Growing up in the neighborhood created special memories for me. I remember Max and how he had that gentle way of instruction about life for us young boys. One of his lasting influences to me was his attitude of friendliness and hospitality. He made us feel welcome in his home. I truly admired his many aquired skills and more importantly, that he put them to good use. I'll miss Max, but hope to meet him again some day.

“ My Dear "Special" Uncle Max, How I thank God for the priviledge of being your niece. From the time I was a little girl you and Aunt Mary have always been there for me, giving me a shoulder to cry on so many times. I remember sitting in your kitchen about a year ago and confiding in you both about a deep family hurt that I was going through. As I cried, you cried too. I never told you how much that meant to me. You both felt my hurt, and I know it. Thank you for allowing God to use you in the way He did. I am looking forward to spending eternity together. I love you, Georgi

“ UncleMax, I can't believe you're gone. Last night I dreamed that my Uncle Max was with his Mom & Dad,my Grandma and Grandpa Beadle my Mother Ruby, and my sister Kay and he had a big smile on his face. He was saying, 'Boy o Boy! Isn't this something!' I was happy for them but I'm going to miss him so much. Uncle Max was a man who accomplished everything he ever set out to. God Bless Him.... his"Porgy"

“ We learn very early in life that those older than us will die before we will. We are never allowed the luxury of growing old with the older generation. Yet when the time comes to let them go, it is never expected and it is never easy to accept. I wanted Uncle Max in my life forever, but now I must let him go. Grief is for the living and I am feeling it once again. My Uncle Max was a man of strong character, ready wit, and he always knew the right thing to say. My sympathy goes out not only to his family, but to everyone who knew him, for we have all lost a wonderful person.

“ Dear Backy, If I can see through these tears I want to say how much I love my little brother. What an important part of my life you were. Any time there was an important occasion in my family...I knew you would be there, I remember the last one, Teresa's 50th birthday. I'll never forget your tender heart. Your love for your family was obvious to all. When you told me the other day not to worry...I was so worried. My life will not be the same without you. I love you, Backy. Your sis, Beaut

“ Dear Pop, I can't believe your gone, we miss you so much. I am greatly sadden that you are no longer here on earth with us. I wish i could have spent more time with you since I left home and got married. But I shall cherrish all of my time with you. From pulling our teeth, to cutting our hair, showing me how to ride my bike, and take care of my car, for all of the life lessons. For all of the fun trips/vacations. I could go on forever and ever with the memories. I can't believe your gone and I miss you so. I promise I shall remember you and do as you would do in life for all the days of my life. Love always your grandson. Gabe newt

“ Dear Dad, My heart is breaking into a million pieces right now, no more struggling will you have, and that gives me comfort, even at this devastating time that seems like will never get better. I know that it will but it's hard to see at this point. You left us too soon and too quickly. Father's Day will never be the same again. I'm so glad we spent this Father's Day, and most of all the others together. What a fun time we had, it was always fun with you around Daddy, you and your funny wit and ability to make me screech with laughter! I will always be your little girl you wanted to "carrying around on a pillow", as you put it. You are in my heart always. Missing you, Love, Your Daughter Anita P.S. Thanks for giving me my first name. What a gift!
