“ Tom; This is so hard for me to believe! Melanie Ashby e-mailed kim with the news. I had to see the obituarie for myself. I am at a lose for words other than the normal ones and they are falling short of what i am wanting to say. I guess you knew me well enough to know how i feel with out words being said. Love to you and the girls.

“ May Her Family Find Peace In Knowing Just HOW much their Momma & Wife Loved Them. Her Family Was Everything To Her. Know She Will Be With U Everyday, In Ways U Will Never Imagine, But Will Feel When It's So. God Bless You All.

“ God Opened His Arms & Welcomed Another Angel Into His Kingdom. While I hate that u left so early, I am calm knowing u are no longer in pain. U brought so much joy & comfort to others in pain, while dealing with ur own. U never complained on the negative & tried to be so upbeat all along while I knew u were suffering. U lived life to it's fullest & were as strong as u could be with ur family, friends & puppies. U tried to be strong & yet thru calls on the way to treatments & appts u voiced ur fear with me. U told me mons ago u were ready to be with ur Mom & wanted to go, but God wasn't ready just yet, he knew u had a few more things to do before that morning. U helped me see how strong & courageous one can be when they need to be & I am thankful u called me friend. Rest well my friend, rejoice with ur family as we know u will always be with us. As I always told you, & will yet today, u will forever be in my thoughts & always in my heart. Love U Becca. xoxox ❤️ xoxoxo

“ I remember Becky as fearless, with tons of common sense and a no-nonsense attitude. She acted as a second mom for me for many years, for which I am grateful. I am so sorry for your loss. May she rest peacefully.
