“ Becky was a light in a dark, scary world. We had been friends for most of our lives. Unfortunately life happens and gets in the way of keeping connected....although we both always knew we loved each other and would always be there for one another. I know you flew into Jesus’s arms and there was a wonderful celebration of your family’s reunion. I know you’ll spend eternity watching over your son’s and their family. You took so much love with you sweet girl. I love you. 💕💕

She was the most beautiful and kind person while here with us. Becky, now you have no worries or concerns!! Blessings to your family during this difficult time. Rest knowing she has loved by all❤️*
